

ASM Courses Articulated with CIM

Acsenda School of Management (ASM) is an affiliated school with the Canadian Institute of Management (CIM) <http://cim.ca/branches/bc/overview> and has acquired course credit equivalency approvals for the 10 courses required for the completion of CIM's Certificate in Management and Administration (CIMA).

ASM students graduating from any of the ASM business programs will be eligible to apply for the Certificate in Management and Administration (CIMA) from CIM and as holders of CIMA, will be eligible to apply for the C.I.M. (Certified in Management) designation once they have acquired two (2) years of Canadian management/administration experience.
